

I am a Bird from Heaven's Garden

Music, Sound and Architecture
in the Muslim World

Friday Sept. 13 - Sunday Sept. 15, 2013

I am a Bird from Heaven's Garden:* Music, Sound, and Architecture in the Muslim World conference

The University of Alberta cordially invites you to join us at the I am a Bird from Heaven's Garden conference, from September 13 to 15, 2013.

This unique opportunity is hosted by the University of Alberta in collaboration with the Aga Khan University and the Aga Khan Trust for Culture. The three-day event will be a celebration of music, sound, architecture and gardens. Distinguished scholars and performers from around the world will be at the University of Alberta's Devonian Botanic Garden for insightful lectures, outstanding musical performance and experiential workshops.

This mega event will include Music in the Garden: An Evening of Musical Improvisation and Reception at Devonian Botanic Garden, on Friday, September 13, 2013, which will also be a great opportunity for meeting people from different walks of life including international delegates from different countries, the political offices, Government organizations, multinational organizations, entrepreneurs, non-Governmental organizations as well as international organizations from different parts of the world.

For registration please click <http://heavens-garden.org/register-now/>. Other detailed information about the program is at www.heavens-garden.org. We look forward to seeing you in September.

Kindest regards,

Regula Burckhardt Qureshi and Michael Frishkopf

ⁱ "I am a Bird from Heaven's Garden" is taken from a poem verse by the Persian poet Hafiz (1325-1390).
